

Interact Constitution

Article I (Name)

Interact

Article II (Purpose)

Interact club exists in provide students opportunities to participate and learn the value of service and volunteer work.

Article III (Club Officers)

1. Interact Club board consists of: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and 1 StuCo Representative
2. The Officers are selected by elections at the beginning of the year if the advisor and members deem it necessary for a new board to be chosen. Any candidates have to fill out a form with their desired position and answer the questionnaire regarding why they would like the position/how they would fulfill their duties.
3. Each officer has their own duties, besides participating and helping in events. The President presides and directs meetings with the help of the Vice President, who can substitute for the President if need be. The Treasurer works with the advisor in accounting the club's money. The Secretary takes organized notes at each meeting to archive all discussions. The Representatives alternate in attending Student Council meetings on Tuesday mornings to represent; request fundraisers/ other events.

Article IV (Club Members)

1. The requirements of being a member are: attending club meetings whenever possible, being able to help with club events.
2. Some duties of members include actively participating in service projects and fundraising events.
3. Member responsibilities include coming to meetings, decorating for Homecoming, participating in Homecoming events, and attending club volunteer work/service projects

Article V (Club Meetings)

1. Interact Club meets on Thursdays in the student commons at 3:05pm.
2. The meetings begin with discussing the agenda and going over events that need to be done.
3. There are no dues to join Interact, but participating in fundraisers is highly encouraged and expected of all members.

4. Committees for events and fundraisers are organized on an as-needed basis. By attending meetings, members can join the committee of their preference.

5. Attendance is not mandatory but is necessary in order to stay up to date with the happenings of Interact. At every meeting there is a sign in sheet.

Article VI (Impeachment of Officers)

1. An Interact Officer can only be impeached if he/she is not fulfilling their job and duties, nor participating in events if available.

2. The impeachment process will be a vote raised by another officer and an anonymous majority vote by the members at impeachment meeting.

3. The accused Officer will be notified of impeachment procedures after receiving a warning and second chance for improvement. He/she cannot be present at the impeachment process, and will be notified of results afterwards by the club's advisor.

Article VII

1. Members of the Interact cannot be expelled.

2. If misconduct of a member occurs at any Interact events, the member will receive a warning, and if necessary, be asked to leave.

3. The member will be notified of their expulsion from the event by an officer or the advisor.